

Parent Discussion/Activity Guide
Module 2

Who Are the People of the Wind River Reservation?

Each parent guide is designed to engage the parent and student in a meaningful discussion regarding the topic of each Module. We encourage parents to read the synopsis of the module with their child, watch the video, discuss vocabulary words, answer the discussion questions, do the suggested activities together and explore the resources.

Brief program synopsis of module:

This learning module, “Who Are the People of the Wind River Reservation” outlines the establishment, location and inhabitants of the Wind River Reservation. It tells of the sharing of the reservation by two tribes, the Eastern Shoshone and the Northern Arapaho and the vast resources located on the reservation.

Discussion Questions

- #1. What two (2) tribes manage the assets of the Wind River Reservation? How did the two tribes end up inhabiting one reservation?
- #2. Discuss the establishment of Wyoming as a State (1890) and the Ft. Bridger Treaty of 1868 establishing the Wind River Reservation. Why was there a need for reservations?
- #3. What natural resources are discussed in the module? Do they differ from other areas of Wyoming?
- #4. Why do you think it is important to know about Tribal history?

Suggested Activities

- #1. Watch “Who Are the People of the Wind River Reservation?” - <http://windriveredu.org> or <http://wyomingpbs.org/learningmedia>
- #2. Discuss vocabulary words with your child. From viewing the module ask your student what each word means. Answers provided at end of this guide.
- #3. Discuss what petroglyphs are. Research different places petroglyphs are found in Wyoming, and interpret what meanings they may have.
